

Vajravajradhara means the Supreme Destroyer of Evil

Mantra : Nama Tsanda , Vajra Krodaya , Hulu Hulu, Tishta Tishta , Banda Banda, Hana Hana, Amrita , Hum Phat .

Vajravajradhara or Namjom Dorje in Tibetan, is a deity of Esoteric Buddhism Tibetan purification specializing in people and their environments. Namjom Dorje is one of the major deities of Tantra yoga meditation.

It is very powerful to cleanse the body , speech and mind of all sentient beings from contamination , material or spiritual . For millennia, the great Tibetan yogis have lived long, healthy and prosperous lives because Vajravajradhara practice. Purification Ceremony with Vajravajradhara . Vajravajradhara is the Buddhist deity of purification, which removes contamination, negative attitude and misconduct made to the body , mind and speech. In addition to possible impurities at all levels, also removes its origin ( Karma ) , external sources and obstacles caused by natural imbalances or negative influences zodiac. Also removes the causes of diseases and negativities of unknown origin. After purification, it creates a protective shield with the Vajra (the object that carries in his right hand diamond represents spiritual strength), which protects for the future.

The ceremony is performed in 3 stages : first by removing the current negativities then waste, and finally protecting the person for the future. The teacher takes the form of the Buddha through meditation prior Vajravajradhara applies power to cleanse the mind and release of potential premature death, disease, negative influences of the stars, envy and congenital factors, among others.

The ceremony includes a symbolic ritual bath with purified water ( a few drops on the head and other body parts) . With the power of the Mantras , bells , and other elements of power, the Master removed attendees karmic energy ties situations involving physical, mental , emotional or work .

The ritual increases power personal power and self-healing powers and positive energy of the person. Clean the chakras and subtle energies of the body. Decreases frustration, depression and anxiety. Eliminates nightmares, negative dreams, brings health, happiness, long life, and success. It is a traditional ceremony and widely practiced in the Himalayas and Tibet.

This ceremony is held in private and in groups.